IT'S FREE!

FREE SUPPLIES AND FREE TRAINING WITH EVERY GAMMILL PURCHASED NOW THROUGH DEC. 31, 2006.

PRICE ALERT!!!

Gammill notified us that a price increase on all Gammill and Statler Stitcher machines will occur sometime after Quilt Market and Festival in Houston. We do not know exactly when or how much the increase will be; however, we are expecting a significant price increase as prices have not changed for several years. We recommend that you act now for even greater savings!

FREE: Those who purchase any Deluxe Line machine (Gammill Classic, Optimum, Supreme or Premier Plus model) will receive the supply package of their choice free. Each of these supply collections are valued from $800 - $1,100. [Those who order a Homecraft or non-stitch regulated Premier will receive a supply package at 50% off the valued price of $499.95.]

FREE: 250 EXTRA pattern files ($2,500 value when purchased individually). Compete better with other quilters in your area by having more patterns for customers to choose from.

FREE: Delivery valued at $495 to most Midwestern US destinations. Contact us for discounted rates to more distant locations.

FREE: Each new machine owner will get "Machine Basics" training (value $250) and 2-days Advanced Intermediate Level Training (value $500). But that's not all! When you order a Gammill Statler Stitcher system from Accomplish Quilting, Inc. you will receive a free supply package of your choice and free training, plus:

That's over $3,500 in free supplies and patterns. With FREE training and delivery this package is worth up to $4,800 for those who purchase a Statler Stitcher.

Don't forget! You must place your order with down payment by December 31, 2006 to receive these value added items and services FREE.

 How much you save depends on which model you choose. Anyway you look at it, you are getting thousands of dollars worth of free supplies, training and delivery service if you act before December 31, 2006. This offer may not be combined. For this offer to apply, your down payment is due by December 31 and delivery must occur by February 28, 2007.*

Our Supply Collections Save You Money – Order today to receive up to $1,100 in FREE supplies*

Artisans –

Are you ready for adding the creative touch to your quilts? This package starts you off with a delightful collection of polyester thread preferred by most award winning quilters. We set you up with heirloom quality batting and give you more control with extend-a-drive handles. This package is valued at more than $1,035 and offered only through Accomplish Quilting.

Basics –

Whether you are buying a new machine or have had one a while these extra supplies and parts can make your quilting experience a breeze. Take advantage of a maintenance review course with the video and tune up your machine so it runs like a dream using the oil and maintenance kit. You will have all the right thread and batting to start your business off with style with the batting and thread our customers recommended for this supply collection. Package is valued at almost $800.

Cottons –

Do you love traditional quilting with all cotton thread and batting? Then this kit is for you. We have included 25 cones of thread to make your cotton quilting stand out from others using poor quality thread. We also are giving you some of our most requested patterns and notions to save you time in quilting your masterpieces. Take advantage of this supply collection in 2006 because it's valued at over $1,000.

Details on the contents of each supply package can be viewed at www.accomplishquilting.com
